

LBA Las Bellas | Artes

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Las Bellas Artes is pleased to announce the launch of the premiere issue of LBA Magazine, an online quarterly of articles, news, reviews and guides covering the intersecting art scenes of New York, Mexico City, Miami and elsewhere in the Americas.

The magazine will include articles and news covering Mexican and Latin American visual art, music, fashion, architecture and design, and will include monthly guides and editors' picks of galleries, restaurants and events within these three cities.

The first issue features work by photographer Damian Siqueiros, as well as more emergent Latin American artists.

An exclusive press preview will take place on Friday, April 23rd from 7 to 9pm at 166 Mercer Street, Suite 3F. A second event will take place on Sunday, April 25th, sponsored by Tanteo Tequila and open to the public.

Las Bellas Artes is a network of artists, photographers, designers, writers and art enthusiasts throughout North, South and Latin America. LBA aims, through editorial and curatorial endeavors, to support, promote and provide commentary on the growing presence of Latin American artists in New York and throughout the Americas.

For more information, please visit www.lasbellasartes.org

or contact:

Gustavo Ortega

g@lasbellasartes.org

Mollie Cashwell

m@lasbellasartes.org

